

GIFTS AND DONTATIONS

Gifts of materials are accepted by and become the property of the library with the understanding that the disposition of such items is at the library's discretion. Gift materials are added to the collection if they meet the selection criteria established for purchased materials and have merit in the collection.

Gifts of money toward the purchase of materials may be accepted with the understanding that items will be selected based upon the needs of the library. Gifts may appropriately be identified by a book plate or other suitable label which the library will choose and supply.

The library may occasionally accept some gifts with restrictions imposed, based upon the discretion of the Director.

Gifts of real property will not be accepted without the approval of the Board.

Adopted September 22, 1993 by the Board of Trustees of the Middle Country Public Library.
