

UNATTENDED CHILDREN POLICY

Parents, not the library staff, are responsible for the behavior of their children using the library. Parents will be notified if their children are left unattended and require supervision. If parents are unavailable, proper authorities will be contacted.

Adopted February 24, 1988 by the Board of Trustees of the Middle Country Public Library