

MOVIE REVIEW

Title: Ferdinand

Age Rating: PG

Genre: Comedy

Teen Rating: 5/5

View This Movie in the Catalog
(available as DVD or Blu-ray)

Description:

Ferdinand was growing up in a ranch where bulls were trained; and were picked out for bullfights when they got older. Even though Ferdinand was taught that he had to fight, he never really liked fighting. His father had once been picked to fight a matador and had never returned back. Ferdinand escaped the ranch in search of a way to go on with life without fighting. After he had escaped from the ranch, he had found himself lost in the woods. There, he met Nina who took care of him until he was all grown up. One day, during the flower festival, Ferdinand had caused a big ruckus by accident and was viewed as dangerous. He was then captured and sent back to the ranch where he had once escaped from. Now, Ferdinand is trying to escape the with all of his friends so no none of them get killed during anymore bullfights.

Favorite or Least Favorite Part:

My favorite part of the movie was the ending. Throughout the movie, Bastian's importance to Fantasia is foreshadowed. At the end the empress tells Atreyu that Bastian is the only one who can give her a new name and save Fantasia. After reading this Bastian calls out the name he's chosen for the empress, saving Fantasia.

-Mabsura S.