Helpfulness: 4/5

Likeliness to Recommend: 4/5

Experience with the resource:

My experience with The Cartoon Database was great. I had a good time going through all of the cartoons. They give you a good amount of information if you are using them for school or to educate yourself. I had a project on movie studio and production and the history backgrounds and information taken off the site was a great help. They have wide varieties of selections. Also visually looking at cartoons also helped me remember, understand and use the information properly. Overall I could recommend.
